DIVISIONS

Junior (Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced)	Senior	Black Belt
Pee-Wees - Up to Age 6	White	Shodan
Children - Ages 7-9	Blue	Nidan
Children - Ages 10-12	Green	Sandan/up
Teens - Ages 13-15	Brown

Junior divisions may be further divided into Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced if there are enough entrants. The Brown Belt division may also be divided into Sankyu/Nikyu and Ikkyu if there are enough contestants. Black Belt divisions may be combined, depending on the number of entrants. Please specify Beginner, Intermediate, or Advanced on the junior contestant's judging form.

CONTEST FORMAT

Allowable attacks and defenses are explained in detail on the AJJF website:
<http://www.ajjf.org/AJJF/handbook/forms/contestRules.pdf#freestyle>.

Additional rules for this contest are as follows:

In the Senior White Belt Division, contestants shall not defend with any over the top throws, and shall not attack with kicks. Takedowns and sweeps will be permitted. Over the top throws are defined as when both of uke's feet leave the mat. They may defend with simulated punches, basic hand arts, takedowns and simple hold downs.

It is expected that attackers will signal when they wish to grab the defender for an attack. It is not required for the attacker to signal before attacking with punches or kicks. Punches and kicks must, however, be delivered with the control and speed appropriate to the division.
